 - (ii) an electronic message delivered to a body's or person's C&S supplied electronic mail account.
- (2) The headings form part of this constitution.
- (3) The Executive is responsible for the interpretation of this constitution and its schedules.
- (4) In this constitution a period of notice of a meeting expressed in days—
 - (a) does not include the day on which notice is given; but
 - (b) includes the day on which the meeting is held.

2 Schedules

- (1) Schedules to this constitution have the same force as this constitution.
- (2) Unless the contrary intention appears in a schedule to this constitution, the schedule is to be interpreted in the same manner as this constitution.
- (3) Where a schedule is inconsistent with this constitution, the latter will prevail, and the former will, to the extent of the inconsistency, be without force or effect.
- (4) A breach of any schedule is a breach of this constitution.
- (5) The schedules to this constitution are—
 - (a) the C&S Affiliation Regulations; and
 - (b) the C&S Complaints Policy; and
 - (c) the C&S Expenditure Regulations; and
 - (d) the C&S Finance Regulations; and
 - (e) the C&S Grants Regulations; and
 - (f) the C&S IT Policy; and
 - (g) the C&S Off-Campus Event Regulations; and
 - (h) the MSA/C&S Marketing Policy; and
 - (i) the MSA/C&S Responsible Service of Alcohol Policy.

3 Amendments

- (1) This constitution may be amended by a resolution at a general meeting, provided that—
 - (a) at least three-quarters of the attendants vote in favour of the resolution; and

- (b) 14 days written notice of the proposed amendment is given to all C&S Members.
- (2) Schedules to this constitution may be added, amended or removed by—
 - (a) a resolution at an executive meeting passed an absolute majority of the Executive; or
 - (b) a resolution at a general meeting, provided that—
 - (i) at least three-quarters of the attendants vote in favour of the resolution; and
 - (ii) 14 days written notice of the proposed amendment is given to all C&S Members.
- (3) A schedule to this constitution to which there is at least 1 direct reference in this constitution other than in subclause 2(5), must not be removed or have its name amended, without this constitution being amended, to update or remove the references, as appropriate.
- (4) If a schedule to this constitution is added, removed or has its name altered, subclause 2(5) must be amended to reflect the change.
- (5) Amendments to this constitution made under subclause (4) are not subject to subclause (1).
- (6) Amendments to this constitution and its schedules must be—
 - (a) promulgated by written notice within 14 days to all clubs; and
 - (b) noted in an appendix to this Constitution, including—
 - (i) the date on which the amendment was approved; and
 - (ii) a description of the amendment; and
 - (iii) the body that approved the amendment; and
 - (iv) the meeting at which the amendment was approved.

- (1) The C&S Office-Bearers are voting members of the Executive.
- (2) Executive members have the right to speak and vote at executive meetings.

14 Ex-officio members

- (1) The MSA Executive Officer, C&S staff members, and each member of the Executive-Elect are ex-officio members of the Executive.
- (2) Ex-officio members have the right to speak at executive meetings, except as prescribed in subclause 18(11), but must not vote and are not counted towards quorum.

Division 2 Responsibilities

15 Functions and powers

- (1) The functions of the Executive are to—
 - (a) affiliate groups of students as clubs for the purposes of this constitution; and
 - (b) maintain an up-to-date register of—
 - (i) clubs; and
 - (ii) club office-bearers; and
 - (c) disaffiliate clubs as provided for in this constitution; and
 - (d) manage the C&S budget, including grants; and
 - (e) oversee the management of C&S records and archives;
 - (f) monitor and regulate the activities of clubs; and
 - (g) ensure that clubs act in accordance with both their constitutions and this Constitution; and
 - (h) consider allegations of misconduct on the part of a club, or a club's representatives, that is referred to it, and to take such action as it deems appropriate, subject to this constitution.
- (2) The Executive may, whenever it resolves that it is appropriate to do so, make a written report to the President of MSA in relation to the conduct (including any act or omission) of any person or club, which the Executive reasonably believes may be in breach of—
 - (a) the constitution of a club; or
 - (b) this constitution; or
 - (c) the MSA constitution; or
 - (d) the Statutes, Regulations or Rules of the University.
- (3) The Executive has, and may exercise, subject to this constitution, such powers as are reasonably necessary in order for C&S to pursue its purposes, as prescribed in subclause 5(1), and for the Executive to perform its functions, as prescribed in subclause (1).
- (4) Without limiting any other provision, the Executive has express power—

- (a) to invalidate any meeting or election of a club that has not been conducted in accordance with the club's constitution; and
 - (b) to convene a general meeting of a club.
- (5) For the exclusive purposes of the constitution of the MSA, the Executive is the governing body of C&S.

16 Delegation

- (1) The Executive may, by an absolute majority—
- (a) establish committees or subcommittees with such membership and terms of reference as it thinks appropriate; and
 - (b) delegate its responsibilities and powers as it thinks appropriate.
- (2) Responsibilities and powers of the Executive may be delegated by a schedule to this constitution to any executive members or MSA staff members.
- (3) A body to which or person to whom a responsibility or power is delegated must not delegate that responsibility or power further.
- (4) The Executive must not delegate its powers—
- (a) to affiliate groups of students as clubs; or
 - (b) to direct a club to a misconduct hearing; or
 - (c) to impose any misconduct penalty on a club; or
 - (d) to add, amend or remove schedules under subclause 3(2); or
 - (e) to interpret this constitution and the regulations under subclause 1(3).

17 Supremacy of council

- (1) When a resolution of the Executive is inconsistent with a resolution of C&S, the latter will prevail, and the former will, to the extent of the inconsistency, be without force or effect.
- (2) Subject to the prescribed notice requirements for agenda items under subclause 21(2), C&S may resolve to reconsider any resolution of the Executive.
- (3) Where C&S resolves to reconsider a resolution of the Executive, it may, after that reconsideration, resolve to—
- (a) affirm; or
 - (b) revoke; or
 - (c) amend
- that resolution of the Executive.

Division 3 Meetings

18 Meetings generally

- (1) There must be at least 6 ordinary executive meetings per semester.
- (2) The Secretary must give at least—
- (a) for ordinary executive meetings, 5 days written notice; or
 - (b) for urgent executive meetings, at least 2 days notice by the fastest means practicable—
- on all members of the Executive.

- (3) Subject to, and in accordance with, subclause (2), the Secretary—
 - (a) may convene an executive meeting whenever they deem it appropriate; and
 - (b) must convene an executive meeting whenever they receive a written request from the President to do so; and
 - (c) must convene an executive meeting whenever they receive a written request from 3 executive members to do so.
- (4) At an executive meeting—
 - (a) the President; or
 - (b) in the absence of the President, the Vice-President; or
 - (c) in the absence of both the President and the Vice-President, a person elected by and from the executive members present—may preside as chair.
- (5) The Executive may adopt Standing Orders for the conduct of executive meetings.
- (6) Each executive member present at an executive meeting, other than the chair, has a deliberative vote.
- (7) At an executive meeting, the chair has a casting vote.
- (8) A quorum for an executive meeting is the presence of—
 - (a) a majority of executive members holding office;
 - (b) at least 1 of whom must be the President, Vice President, Secretary or Treasurer.
- (9) Executive members who are unable to be present at an executive meeting because—
 - (a) of a conflict of interest; or
 - (b) they are on an approved leave of absence and not present—are not counted in determining quorum.
- (10) If, within 15 minutes after the scheduled start of an executive meeting, a quorum is not achieved, the meeting must—
 - (a) proceed as a committee of the whole, which must report its resolutions to the next quorate executive meeting for ratification before they take effect; or
 - (b) if the chair so rules, stand adjourned to a place, time and day (at most 14 days later) specified by the chair at the time of adjournment.
- (11) Executive meetings may only proceed in camera by a resolution passed by an absolute majority and in accordance with subclause 29(5) of the MSA Constitution.
- (12) Voting by proxy at executive meetings is not permitted.
- (13) Executive meetings may be held partially or entirely by use of technology, provided each executive member participating is able to communicate clearly and simultaneously with every other such executive member.

19 Leave of absence

- (1) The Executive may grant an executive member leave of absence from their duties for a period not exceeding six weeks.
- (2) A request for leave of absence is provisionally granted upon request, subject to approval at the next executive meeting.

- (3) The Executive must not grant leave of absence retrospectively unless it is satisfied that it was not feasible for the executive member to seek the leave in advance.
- (4) Notwithstanding subclauses (1)-(3), the Executive must not refuse to grant an executive member leave of absence if the request was made on reasonable grounds.

20 Circular resolutions

- (1) The Executive may, in between meetings, vote on a resolution by way of circular resolution.
- (2) A circular resolution is only considered a valid resolution of the Executive when—
 - (a) every executive member, with the exception of the President and executive members who declare a conflict of interest or are on an approved leave of absence, votes in favour or abstains from the resolution; and
 - (b) all votes are received within 72 hours of the resolution being communicated to executive members.
- (3) A circular resolution must be communicated by email to all executive members by the President.
- (4) Executive members may reply to the email voting in favour, voting against or abstaining from the resolution.
- (5) The email circulated by the President must—
 - (a) specify the exact wording of the resolution proposed; and
 - (b) state the time that votes must be received by; and
 - (c) state the process for voting.
- (6) Upon receiving the votes of all executive members, or upon the time period for votes to be received lapses, whichever occurs first, the President must, as soon as practicable, inform all members of the Executive, by email, whether the circular resolution was passed or otherwise.
- (7) A circular resolution that has been passed is deemed to take effect from when the President emails the result of the circular resolution to all members of the Executive.
- (8) A resolution cannot be voted on by way of circular resolution when it proposes—
 - (a) to recognise a club, society, association or a group of students as a club, in accordance with subclause 50(1); or
 - (b) a change to schedules of the C&S constitution; or
 - (c) penalties to a club that are guilty or otherwise of committing an act of misconduct.
- (9) A list of all resolutions passed by circular resolution must be tabled at the next meeting of the Executive.

Part 4 General meetings

21 Notice and agendas

- (1) The Secretary must give at least 14 days written notice of a general meeting, specifying the date and time, on all C&S members.
- (2) A C&S member may request to have an item added to the agenda for a general meeting by serving a written notice on the Secretary by 23:59 four academic days prior to the scheduled start of the meeting.
- (3) The Secretary must distribute to all C&S members a provisional agenda for a general meeting by written notice at least 7 days prior to the day of the meeting, specifying the date, time and location.
- (4) The Secretary must distribute to all C&S members a final agenda for a general meeting by written notice at least 48 hours prior to the scheduled start of the meeting, specifying the date, time and location.
- (5) The C&S Council may adopt Standing Orders for the conduct of general meetings.

22 Annual general meetings

- (1) The Executive must convene an AGM to be held in September of each year.
- (2) The business of an AGM must include—
 - (a) reception of the annual reports of the C&S Office-Bearers; and
 - (b) election of C&S Office-Bearers; and
 - (c) any other business of which notice has been given with the final agenda; and
 - (d) a forum for general discussion.

23 Ordinary general meetings

- (1) The Executive must convene an OGM each year, to be held during the first semester.
- (2) The business of an OGM must include—
 - (a) reception of reports from the President and Treasurer; and
 - (b) if necessary, by-elections of C&S Office-Bearers; and
 - (c) if necessary, consideration of any Misconduct Appeal Hearings; and
 - (d) any other business of which notice has been given with the final agenda; and
 - (e) a forum for general discussion.

24 Extraordinary general meetings

- (1) An EGM must be convened if—
 - (a) at least 5 C&S members give written notice to the Executive requesting one; or
 - (b) C&S resolves to convene one; or
 - (c) the Executive resolves to convene one; or
 - (d) an election appeal panel directs the Executive to convene one; or
 - (e) one must be convened to hold a by-election, as prescribed in subclauses 21(4)-(5).
- (2) The business of an EGM must include—
 - (a) if necessary, by-elections of C&S Office-Bearers; and

- (b) if necessary, consideration of any Misconduct Appeal Hearings; and
- (c) any other business of which notice has been given with the final agenda.

25 Conduct of general meetings

- (1) General meetings may only be held—
 - (a) on an academic day; and
 - (b) on the Clayton campus of the University or by means of technology.
- (2) Subject to this Part, paragraph 33(1)(b) and subclause 56(11), the Executive may, in its absolute discretion, determine the date, time, place and agenda of any general meeting.
- (3) Attendance at general meetings must be limited to—
 - (a) C&S Office-Bearers; and
 - (b) C&S and MSA staff members; and
 - (c) either the club president, president's proxy or an office-bearer of each club; and
 - (d) candidates who submitted a prior nomination for an election, for the duration of the elections or by-elections; and
 - (e) any other person permitted by declaration of the chair, unless otherwise resolved by a majority of the attendants present.
- (4) No club may be represented by more than 1 person at any general meeting.
- (5) A person who is an attendant in their capacity as a club president or a club president's proxy must, upon registration for a general meeting, indicate which clubs they are representing at that meeting.
- (6) The Executive may resolve that a general meeting be held partially or entirely by means of technology, provided each attendant participating is able to communicate clearly and simultaneously with every other such attendant.
- (7) At a general meeting—
 - (a) the President; or
 - (b) in the absence of the President, the Vice-President; or
 - (c) in the absence of both the President and the Vice-President, an executive member nominated by the President by signed notice to the Secretary; or
 - (d) otherwise, a person elected by and from the attendants present—may preside as chair, except as prescribed in paragraph 31(1)(c) and subclause 57(4).
- (8) At a general meeting, each C&S member has a deliberative vote, except as prescribed in subclause (9)-(11).
- (9) At a general meeting, the chair has a casting vote, but not a deliberative vote.
- (10) A C&S member must not cast more than 1 vote upon any question to be determined at a general meeting, notwithstanding the fact that they are representing multiple clubs.
- (11) At a general meeting, C&S Office-Bearers do not have a deliberative vote unless a C&S Office-Bearer is voting in their capacity as a club president or club president's proxy.
- (12) A quorum for a general meeting is the presence of one-third of C&S members.

- (13) Proxies are counted in determining quorum.
- (14) If, within 30 minutes after the scheduled start of a general meeting, a quorum is not achieved, the meeting must—
 - (a) proceed as a committee of the whole, which must report its resolutions to the next quorate general meeting for ratification before they take effect; or
 - (b) if the chair so rules, stand adjourned to a place, time and day (at least 7 and at most 14 days later) specified by the chair at the time of adjournment.

26 Proxies

- (1) An executive member may not appoint any person as their proxy for general meetings, unless that executive member does so in their capacity as a club president.
- (2) A club president may appoint a person or persons as their proxy for general meetings, in accordance with subclause (3), if those persons are—
 - (a) students undertaking at least one unit of study at a Victorian Campus of the University; and
 - (b) ordinary members entitled to vote of that club president's club—for the duration of the appointment.
- (3) To appoint a person or persons as their proxy, a club president must give a signed notice of proxy appointment to the Secretary or the Executive at least 72 hours prior to the commencement of the appointment.
- (4) Such an appointment notice must contain—
 - (a) the name of the club president appointing the proxy; and
 - (b) the name of the club for which the proxy is being appointed; and
 - (c) the names and student numbers of the persons being appointed proxy, in order of priority; and
 - (d) an electronic mail address for the persons being appointed proxy; and
 - (e) the date on which the appointment will cease, as the appointment will commence 72 hours after the date that signed notice was given.
- (5) Where a person is the president of more than 1 club, they may appoint separate proxies for each club.
- (6) Where a club president has appointed multiple persons as their proxy for the same club, and more than 1 of those persons attends a general meeting, only the person first listed in the proxy appointment notice is deemed to be that club president's proxy for that general meeting.
- (7) A club president's proxy is deemed to be a C&S member for the duration of a general meeting if that club president—
 - (a) is presiding as chair;
 - (b) is absent from that general meeting; or
 - (c) is president of more than 1 club, and at that general meeting is representing a club other than that for which the proxy has been appointed.
- (8) A club president may withdraw a proxy appointment at any time, by serving a signed notice of withdrawal on the Secretary or the Executive.

27 Warnings

- (1) An attendant must not—

- (a) act in breach of this Constitution; the MSA constitution; the Statutes, Regulations or Rules of the University; or the fiduciary duties owed to the club's members; or
 - (b) engage in conduct that is racist, sexist, queerphobic, transphobic, ableist, militaristic, or otherwise unbecoming a member, or prejudicial to the interests, of C&S; or
 - (c) disseminate any physical campaign materials or material intended or reasonably likely to alter the voting intention of attendees.
- (2) Where the chair determines an attendant has breached subclause (1) the chair may issue the attendant an oral warning specifying that they are in breach of subclause (1).
- (3) If any attendant has been issued with three oral warnings, pursuant to subclause (2), the chair must direct them to leave the general meeting, and the club that they were representing will no longer be represented at the general meeting.
- (4) A direction by the chair made under subclause (3) may be overruled by the affirmative votes of an absolute majority of the attendants present at that general meeting and, if that direction is overruled, the attendant who was subject to that direction will be deemed to have been issued only two oral warnings.

Part 5 Elections

Division 1 Elections generally

28 Timing

- (1) A C&S Office-Bearer election may only be held during a general meeting.
- (2) Annual elections must be held at the AGM, for all positions in all offices.
- (3) A by-election for a position must be held at an OGM or EGM if the person most recently elected to that position—
 - (a) has ceased to hold office prior to the ordinary conclusion of their term prior to that meeting; or
 - (b) will cease to hold office prior to the ordinary conclusion of their term within 28 days of the date of that meeting.
- (4) In the event that the office of the President, Vice-President, Secretary or Treasurer —
 - (a) is vacated prior to the conclusion of an ordinary term; or
 - (b) remains vacant after an election—

an EGM must be convened by the Executive and held within 20 academic days of vacation to enable a by-election for the vacant positions, unless an OGM or AGM will be held within the same period.

Division 2 Returning Officer

29 Appointment

- (1) C&S Office-Bearer elections must be conducted by a Returning Officer who must—
 - (a) be the Secretary; or
 - (b) if the Executive resolves otherwise by an absolute majority or the Secretary self-disqualifies, be a C&S Office-Bearer or club office-bearer appointed at least 14 days prior to the date of the general meeting at which the election is to be held—at the time of appointment.

- (2) If the Returning Officer—
 - (a) is not present at the general meeting; or
 - (b) is unable to fulfill their duties—

the general meeting may appoint a new Returning Officer if at least three-quarters of attendants vote in favour of the decision.

30 Neutrality

- (1) The Returning Officer must not—
 - (a) be a candidate; or
 - (b) endorse a candidate; or
 - (c) vote—

in an election over which they preside.

31 Duties

- (1) The Returning Officer, for an election over which they oversee—

- (a) is responsible to C&S and the Executive for the proper conduct of the election, in accordance with this constitution; and
- (b) must determine the methods in which policy documents may be accepted; and
- (c) must preside as chair over the general meeting at which the election takes place, for the duration of the election.

Division 3 Notice

32 Notice generally

- (1) The Returning Officer must give written notice of an election on all C&S members, at least 14 days prior to the date of the general meeting at which the election is to be held.
- (2) A notice of election must specify—
 - (a) the general meeting at which the election is to be held; and
 - (b) the positions to be filled at the election; and
 - (c) the ordinary term of office for each position to be elected; and
 - (d) the duties of each office in which positions are to be elected; and
 - (e) the nomination process; and
 - (f) the methods, determined by the Returning Officer, in which policy documents may be submitted; and
 - (g) whether the general meeting at which the election is to be held will be in-person or by use of technology.

Division 4 Nominations

33 Nominations generally

- (1) The Returning Officer must—
 - (a) must verify the correctness of nominations, including, but not limited to, verifying that nominees and endorsers are students; and
 - (b) in conjunction with the Secretary, ensure that, in order of nomination, a complete list of candidates for the election and any policy documents are included with the final agenda for the general meeting at which the election will take place.
- (2) A candidate may be nominated for more than 1 position if each position is in a different office.

34 Prior nominations

- (1) A person is eligible to be nominated as a candidate for election as a C&S Office-Bearer if they are eligible to be elected at the time of the election.
- (2) A nomination of a candidate for election as a C&S Office-Bearer must—
 - (a) be made in writing on a nomination form supplied by the Returning Officer; and
 - (b) state the nominee's full name and student number, the body (a club or the Executive) from which they are being nominated, and the position held within that body; and

- (c) state all clubs of which the nominee is a committee member, and the position held in each club; and
- (d) include the signed consent of the nominee; and
- (e) be endorsed by a club office-bearer of each of 2 clubs, at least 1 of which the nominee is not a member, and include the signature, full name, student number, club and position held within the club, of each endorser; and
- (f) be delivered to the Returning Officer by 23:59 four academic days prior to the date of the general meeting at which the election is to be held—except as prescribed in clause 35.

- (3) A candidate may submit a policy document of up to 500 words length to the Returning Officer, in the method specified in the notice of election, by 23:59 four academic days prior to the scheduled start of the general meeting at which the election is to be held.
- (4) The Returning Officer must review the policy document prior to its use in the election and ensure untrue, defamatory or discriminatory statements are not published.

35 Nominations from the floor

- (1) Where a nomination is received at a general meeting in accordance with subclause 41(2)—
 - (a) it must be orally endorsed by representatives of each of 2 clubs, at least 1 of which the nominee is not a member; and
 - (b) it must be orally accepted by the nominee; and
 - (c) the nominee must state their name, the body (a club or the Executive) from which they are being nominated, and the position held within that body; and
 - (d) the nominee must provide their student number to the Returning Officer; and
 - (e) the nominee must state all clubs of which they are a committee member, and the position held in each club.

36 Disqualification by Returning Officer

- (1) A nomination of a candidate for a C&S Office-Bearer election must be withdrawn by the Returning Officer if that candidate—
 - (a) becomes ineligible to be elected or to hold office; or
 - (b) has already been declared elected for another position; or
 - (c) is nominated from a club, and another candidate nominated from the same club has already been declared elected for a position in an election at the same general meeting.

Note: Nomination from club refers to the club, if any, declared by the nominee under either paragraph 34(2)(b) or paragraph 35(1)(c).

37 Candidate presentations

- (1) The Returning Officer must—
 - (a) provide candidates, in order of nomination an opportunity to give a brief speech and answer questions from the floor; and
 - (b) in their absolute discretion—
 - (i) determine the maximum speaking time, which must be at least 2 minutes and

- (ii) determine the maximum number of questions that each candidate may be asked by C&S members which must be at least 2 questions respectively—granted to candidates before a ballot, provided that every candidate for each office is entitled to an equal amount of time and questions and must ensure this is included as part of the final agenda for a general meeting.

Division 5 Voting

38 Ballots generally

- (1) The Returning Officer must—
 - (a) oversee the preparation of ballot papers and ensure that any other administrative duties required to conduct the election are completed, in conjunction with C&S staff members if required; and
 - (b) initial or verify each ballot paper and keep records of how many ballot papers are issued, and to whom; and
 - (c) determine whether an election will be held by physical or digital ballot and ensure that the voting method or platform is included in the final agenda.
- (2) A ballot for a C&S Office-Bearer election must be a secret ballot, using optional preferential proportional representation.
- (3) The order in which candidates—
 - (a) are listed on digital ballot papers must, where practicable, be in a rotating random order; or
 - (b) otherwise, must be in the order of nomination.

39 Withdrawal

- (1) A candidate for a C&S Office-Bearer election may voluntarily withdraw their nomination at any time prior to the declaration of the result, by giving a signed notice of withdrawal to the Returning Officer.
- (2) If a candidate withdraws their nomination, the Returning Officer—
 - (a) must proceed with the ballot as if that student had never nominated; and
 - (b) may modify ballot-papers as necessary or appropriate.

40 Distribution of ballot-papers

- (1) Where a secret ballot is held for a C&S Office-Bearer election, each attendant—
 - (a) must be supplied 1 ballot-paper by the Returning Officer; and
 - (b) for each office where at least 1 position is being balloted and candidates are listed on the ballot-paper, may indicate an order of preference for 1 or more candidates by placing the number '1' against the candidate of first preference on the ballot paper, and sequential higher numbers against successive candidates of lower preference; and
 - (c) for each office where at least 1 position is being balloted and candidates are not listed on the ballot-paper, may indicate an order of preference for 1 or more candidates by writing the name of the candidates, 1 per line, from top to bottom, in order of preference; and
 - (d) may lodge the ballot-paper as instructed by the Returning Officer.

Division 6 Unopposed candidates

41 Unopposed candidates generally

- (1) If the number of candidates for an office is less than the number of positions to be filled in that office, the Returning Officer must declare the candidates, if any, elected unopposed.
- (2) Further nominations, to fill the remaining positions in the office, must be received from the floor at the general meeting at which the election is held.
- (3) After all new nominations from the floor have been received—
 - (a) if the number of new candidates is less than or equal to the number of positions to be filled in the office, the Returning Officer must declare the new candidates elected unopposed, except as prescribed in clause (4), and any remaining positions must be left vacant; or
 - (b) otherwise, a ballot for the remaining positions in the office must be held, as prescribed in Division 5.
- (4) If the number of candidates for an office is equal to the number of positions to be filled in that office, the Returning Officer must declare the candidates elected unopposed, except as prescribed in clause 42.

42 Multiple candidates from the same club

- (1) If multiple candidates nominated from the same club are to be declared elected unopposed simultaneously—
 - (a) the attendants may resolve to endorse the election of those candidates; or
 - (b) otherwise, the Returning Officer must hold a ballot to determine which 1 of those candidates will be elected, after which the nominations of the other candidates nominated from that club must be withdrawn by the Returning Officer.

Division 7 Results

43 Counting of votes

- (1) The offices must be elected in the order listed in subclause 7(1).
- (2) Each candidate may appoint 1 attendant as a scrutineer.
- (3) Votes must be counted by the Returning Officer, with assistance from C&S staff members if required, in the presence of any scrutineers appointed under subclause (2).
- (4) A ballot paper that has been completed incorrectly, but on which, in the opinion of the Returning Officer, the intent of the voter is clear, must be counted as if it has been completed correctly.
- (5) Votes must be counted using the Meek method with a Droop quota.

44 Declaration of results

- (1) Upon the calculation of votes, the Returning Officer must—
 - (a) declare the election results as soon as practicable; and
 - (b) inform each candidate of the election results as soon as practicable; and
 - (c) notify all clubs of the election results by written notice as soon as practicable; and

45 Election records

- (1) The Returning Officer must submit all election materials to the MSA Executive Officer, who must retain them for a period of at least 12 months; and
- (2) The MSA Executive Officer must, on request and as soon as practicable, make election materials available for inspection by—
 - (a) candidates or their scrutineers;
 - (b) the Returning Officer;
 - (c) executive members;
 - (d) the MSA Executive Officer or delegate.

46 Election report

- (1) The Returning Officer must submit a written report, within 14 days of the declaration of results to—
 - (a) the C&S Executive; and
 - (b) the MSA Executive Officer
- (2) The written report must contain—
 - (a) detailing the nominations received for all positions, including any withdrawals and disqualifications; and
 - (b) reasons for any disqualifications or withdrawal of candidates; and
 - (c) results for any elections conducted; and
 - (d) any rulings or decisions made by the Returning Officer when exercising their authorities under this constitution.

Division 8 Appeal panels

47 Appeal panels generally

- (1) At least 5 club office-bearers, each from a different club, may appeal against the result of an election on the grounds that there has been a defect in the conduct of the election which has materially affected its result.
- (2) Appeals must be made by giving a signed notice of appeal to the MSA Executive Officer within 14 days of the declaration of the election results.
- (3) The MSA Executive Officer must convene an appeal panel within 14 days of receipt of such a notice.
- (4) The appeal panel must consist of—
 - (a) the president of the MSA, or their nominee, who must be an office-bearer of the MSA; and
 - (b) an MSA staff member with supervisory responsibilities whose portfolio does not include C&S, nominated by the MSA Executive Officer; and
 - (c) the MSA Executive Officer, or their nominee, who may speak but not vote; and
 - (d) a person employed by the University on a non-casual and non-sessional basis, agreed upon by the other members of the panel and the Returning Officer.

48 Conduct

- (1) The appeal panel must call for submissions from—

- (a) the Returning Officer; and
 - (b) the appellant; and
 - (c) any other person the panel reasonably determines to be an interested party.
- (2) The appeal panel—
- (a) may regulate its own proceedings; but
 - (b) must conduct its meetings in camera.

49 Decision

- (1) The appeal panel, in considering the notice of dissatisfaction with the conduct of the election, may resolve—
- (a) to set aside the election and direct the Executive to convene an EGM for a new election; or
 - (b) that no further action is warranted.
- (2) The appeal panel must give notice of its decision to—
- (a) the appellant; and
 - (b) any other person the panel reasonably determines to be an interested party; and
 - (c) the Returning Officer; and
 - (d) the Executive; and
 - (e) the MSA Executive Officer.
- (3) The decision of the appeal panel is final and binding on all parties.

Part 6 Clubs

Division 1 Affiliation

50 Recognition

- (1) A club, society, association or other group of students will be recognised by C&S if its constitution complies with Division 2 and any requirements set out in the C&S Affiliation Regulations, and—
 - (a) an application for its recognition is accepted by the Executive; or
 - (b) it maintains its affiliation with C&S—as prescribed in the C&S Affiliation Regulations.

Division 2 Constitutions

51 Constitutions generally

- (1) Every club's constitution must contain—
 - (a) the club's name; and
 - (b) the club's aims and objectives; and
 - (c) clauses that read—
 - (i) "The provisions of this constitution must be construed subject to the constitution of the Clubs & Societies Council."; and
 - (ii) "Where this constitution is inconsistent with the constitution of the Clubs & Societies Council, the latter will prevail, and the former will, to the extent of the inconsistency, be without force or effect."; and
 - (iii) "Where the constitution of the Clubs & Societies Council makes provisions for a matter or thing not otherwise provided for in this constitution, those provisions take effect as if they were contained in this constitution."
- (2) Every Club's constitution must set out—
 - (a) that the club is Not for Profit; and
 - (b) that the annual membership fee for the club, if any, must be set by the club committee and subject to differential pricing as outlined in the C&S Affiliation Regulations; and
 - (c) that a person's membership of the club will run from the payment of the membership fee, or if there is no fee, from registration for membership, until and including 19 March of the following year, or until the person ceases to be eligible, whichever occurs earlier; and
 - (d) a provision to facilitate the rejection of a membership application, provided that the decision to reject be upheld by no less than two thirds of the ordinary members voting in favour of the decision at a general meeting, if at least 14 days notice of the intention to move a motion of rejection has been served on the person, club members and Executive, and they have been given reasonable opportunity to speak to the motion; and
 - (e) that ordinary membership of a club must be open to students, except as prescribed in subclauses (5)-(7), who subscribe to the purposes of the club; and

- (f) that all other persons ineligible for ordinary membership of the club who subscribe to the purposes may be associate members; and

 - (qq) that all assets are the property of the Clubs & Societies Council and will be seized upon disaffiliation; and
 - (rr) that it may be amended if not less than two thirds of the ordinary members present at a club general meeting vote in favour of the proposed amendments provided that the Executive has first approved the sought amendments and 14 days written notice of the proposed amendments are served on all club members; and
 - (ss) provisions regarding the appointment of proxies for club general meetings and that proxies are considered to be present at club general meetings; and
 - (tt) that people are considered to have attended committee meetings and club general meetings if they are able to clearly and simultaneously communicate with members present via the use of technology.
- (3) Under 51(1)(c) the following provisions are taken to be inserted into the Rules or Constitutions (however described) of all affiliated Clubs and apply despite any provision in the Rules or Constitution to the contrary—

- (a) “General meetings may be held entirely by videoconference or teleconference, provided each member participating is able to communicate clearly and simultaneously with every other such member. all ordinary members participating in a general meeting held by videoconference or teleconference are taken to be present at the meeting and, if the members vote at the meeting, are taken to have voted in person”; and
- (b) “For the purposes of 51(2)(ss), members are not permitted to vote by proxy at a general meeting held entirely by videoconference or teleconference”; and
- (c) “For the purposes of 51(2)(mm), a club committee member holding office may participate in the meeting by use of technology that allows that committee member and the committee members present at the meeting to clearly and simultaneously communicate with each other”; and
- (d) “For the purposes of 51(3)(b), a club committee member holding office participating in a club committee meeting as permitted under 51(3)(c) is taken to be present at the meeting and, if the member votes at the meeting, is taken to have voted in person”; and
- (e) “Committee meetings may be held entirely by videoconference or teleconference, provided each committee member participating is able to communicate clearly and simultaneously with every other such committee member”; and
- (f) “For the purposes of 51(3)(d), all committee members holding office participating in a club committee meeting as permitted under 51(3)(e) are taken to be present at the meeting and, if the member votes at the meeting, is taken to have voted in person”; and
- (g) “The Clubs & Societies Executive has power to convene a general meeting of the club”; and
- (h) “The club may raise funds and collect goods for donation to—
 - (i) charities registered with the Australian Charities and Not-for-profits Commission; or
 - (ii) where approved by the C&S Executive, international charities—provided that only those funds raised and goods collected for donation are given to the charity.”; and
- (i) “In this constitution or its schedules a period of notice of a meeting expressed in days—
 - (i) does not include the day on which notice is given; but
 - (ii) includes the day on which the meeting is held”.
- (4) For incorporated clubs, where a requirement under subclause (2) is inconsistent with any applicable requirements under Victorian law, the latter will prevail, and the former will, to the extent of the inconsistency, be without force or effect.
- (5) A club designated by the Executive as an Academic club may restrict ordinary membership to students—
 - (a) enrolled in at least 1 unit of study administered through a specified faculty, school or department of the University; or
 - (b) enrolled in a specified course(s) of study at the University.
- (6) A Club designated by the Executive as a Halls of Residence club may restrict ordinary membership to students who are residents of the hall.
- (7) Subject to any conditions and restrictions prescribed in the C&S Affiliation Regulations, a club may, with prior approval of the C&S Executive—

- (a) extend eligibility for ordinary membership to persons enrolled in a specified course(s) of study at the University, irrespective of campus; or
 - (b) extend eligibility to hold, or be elected to, any ordinary position on the club committee, except the positions of president, vice-president, secretary and treasurer, to persons enrolled in a specified course(s) of study at the University, irrespective of campus; or
 - (c) extend eligibility to hold, or be elected to, any position on the club committee to persons who are currently enrolled in a course at Clayton campus, but may be offshore for an exchange program, for a period not exceeding 2 months of a 12-month term of office.
- (8) Where, in addition to at least 5 ordinary positions, there are non-voting positions on a club committee, they may be open to any member of the club.
- (9) Upon request and in exceptional circumstances, the Executive may waive one or more of the clauses listed in subclause (2) required to be in a club's constitution, provided that the club is affiliated at the Non-Financial level, except for changes required under subclause (4).

Division 3 Disaffiliation

52 Disaffiliation generally

- (1) When a club is disaffiliated—
- (a) it will no longer be recognised by C&S; and
 - (b) its assets will be seized by, or on behalf of, the Executive, and will become the property of C&S, except as prescribed in clause 53; and
 - (c) any bank accounts held in its name must be closed by, or on behalf of, the Executive; and
 - (d) the Executive must take steps to cancel that club's registrations with, if applicable, each of—
 - (i) the Australian Taxation Office; and
 - (ii) the Australian Charities and Not-for-profits Commission and
 - (iii) the Victorian Registrar of Incorporated Associations; and
 - (e) any application to start a new club with purposes that are substantially similar to the purposes of the disaffiliated club, received by the Executive within 1 year of the disaffiliation, must be rejected.

53 Distribution of assets

- (1) Where, in order of priority—
- (a) the constitution of a club; or
 - (b) a written agreement between a club and the Executive—
- sets out that, in the event of that club's disaffiliation or winding up, certain specified assets will be distributed to bodies or persons other than C&S, such distribution arrangements must be honoured by the Executive.
- (2) Where a request is made, by signed notice to the Executive, for a reasonable alternative distribution of some or all of a disaffiliated club's assets, the Executive may, in its absolute discretion, accept or reject the request.

54 Maintaining external registrations

(1) Where a request is made by an office-bearer of a disaffiliated club, by signed notice to the Executive, not to cancel that club's registrations with the Australian Taxation Office, Australian Charities and Not-for-profits Commission and Registrar of incorporated associations, the Executive may accept the request.

(2) Where a disaffiliated club—

(a) remains registered with any of—

- (i) the Australian Taxation Office; or
- (ii) the Australian Charities and Not-for-profits Commission; or
- (iii) the Victorian Registrar of Incorporated Associations; or

(b) retains its bank accounts—

that club's name must be amended to exclude the terms "Monash", "University", "Uni" and "MSA" and the amended name must be updated on that club's registrations and accounts.

Part 7 Misconduct

55 Misconduct by clubs

- (1) A club is guilty of misconduct if—
 - (a) it fails to maintain its affiliation as prescribed in the C&S Affiliation Regulations; or
 - (b) it, or at least 1 of its representatives acts in breach of—
 - (i) the club's constitution or its schedules; or
 - (ii) this Constitution or its schedules; or
 - (iii) the MSA constitution; or
 - (iv) the Statutes, Regulations or other rules of the University; or
 - (v) the fiduciary or statutory duties owed to the club's members; or
 - (c) it, or at least 1 of its representatives, engages in conduct that is—
 - (i) racist, sexist, queerphobic, transphobic, ableist, militaristic; or
 - (ii) or otherwise unbecoming a member; or
 - (iii) prejudicial to the interests, of C&S; or
 - (d) it incurs a debt when there are reasonable grounds to expect that the club will not be able to repay all its debts; or
 - (e) it fails to be represented at any general meeting; or
 - (f) it fails to act on a directive from the Executive or C&S.
- (2) Schedules to this constitution may prescribe penalties for specific breaches of this constitution or the schedule itself.
- (3) Where a prescribed act of misconduct has an associated prescribed penalty, such a prescribed penalty must be imposed on an offending club by the Executive.
- (4) Where the Executive imposes upon a club a prescribed penalty in accordance with subclause (3), the President must give a signed notice to the club, stating the prescribed penalty and the act of misconduct for which it was imposed, and explaining how the club may appeal the penalty, as prescribed in subclauses (5)-(6).
- (5) If, within 10 academic days of a prescribed penalty notice being given to a club, other than for a reprimand, that club gives a written notice to the Executive stating that it objects to the prescribed penalty notice, that notice ceases to have any force or effect.
- (6) Where a prescribed penalty notice ceases to have any force or effect in accordance with subclause (5), the Executive may resolve to either—
 - (a) take no further action; or
 - (b) impose an alternative penalty of any combination of paragraphs 56(8)(a)-(d) which may be further appealed; or
 - (c) direct the club to attend a misconduct hearing under subclause 56(1).
- (7) Where a club appeals an alternative penalty under paragraph (6)(b), the C&S Executive must convene a misconduct hearing.

56 Misconduct hearings

- (1) If the Executive forms the view that a club may be guilty of misconduct, it may, by an absolute majority, resolve to direct the club to attend a misconduct hearing.

- (2) A misconduct hearing must be held—
 - (a) on an Academic Day, unless otherwise agreed to by the club; and
 - (b) on the Clayton campus or, in exceptional circumstances, by means of technology.
- (3) The Executive must give at least 14 days written notice of a misconduct hearing, including the time, date and location of the hearing, on—
 - (a) the club it concerns, in accordance with subclause (2); and
 - (b) any representatives of the club which the Executive reasonably believes could face the penalty listed in paragraph (8)(g).
- (4) At a misconduct hearing, the Executive will act as a misconduct tribunal and—
 - (a) must permit evidence to be given orally and in writing; and
 - (b) must act according to fairness and good conscience and the substantial merits of the case, without regard to technicalities or legal forms; and
 - (c) must give the club directed to the hearing and any representatives who are given notice under subclause (3) a reasonable opportunity to be heard; and
 - (d) is not bound to conduct any proceeding in a formal manner; and
 - (e) must hear and determine the matter as quickly as is consistent with the requirements of fairness.
- (5) A person or club must not be represented at a misconduct hearing by a duly qualified legal practitioner or other agent acting for fee or reward, unless the Executive, after having considered all the relevant circumstances, is satisfied that such representation is necessary in order to ensure fairness.
- (6) For the exclusive purposes of subclauses 18(4)-(9), and subject to subclauses (3)-(4), a misconduct hearing must be conducted in the same manner as an Executive Meeting.
- (7) If, at the scheduled start of a misconduct hearing, a quorum is not achieved, the hearing may—
 - (a) wait for no longer than 15 minutes to reach quorum; or
 - (b) proceed as a committee of the whole, which must report its resolutions to the next quorate executive meeting for ratification before they take effect; or
 - (c) if the chair so rules, stand adjourned to a place, time and day (at most 14 days later) specified by the chair at the time of adjournment.
- (8) If, after conducting a misconduct hearing in accordance with this constitution, the Executive resolves that a club is guilty of misconduct, the Executive may resolve to impose a penalty on the club, which may include any combination of—
 - (a) reprimanding the club or 1 or more of its representatives; or
 - (b) directing the club to apologise for its behaviour, in a method determined by the Executive; or
 - (c) directing 1 or more of the club's representatives to undertake training as determined by the Executive; or
 - (d) directing the club to submit confirmed minutes of committee meetings for a specified period of time; or
 - (e) directing the club to repay the cost of any property damage that has occurred due to the misconduct; or

- (f) restricting the club's eligibility to hold specified types of events for a specified period of time; or
 - (g) removing from 1 or more of the club's representatives the eligibility to hold, or be nominated for, office in any club, for a specified period of time, or indefinitely; or
 - (h) restricting or removing the club's access to services provided by C&S;
 - (i) restricting or removing the club's eligibility to apply for, or receive, specified forms of financial or other assistance from C&S, for a specified period of time; or
 - (j) altering the club's affiliation status, for a specified period of time not exceeding 24 academic weeks, or in exceptional circumstances, 48 academic weeks; or
 - (k) disaffiliating the club.
- (9) Where the Executive, resolves to impose a penalty on a club, the President must give a signed notice of the penalty to the club, which must include —
- (a) the penalty imposed; and
 - (b) the duration of the penalty and
 - (c) the reasons for the imposition, on the club.
- (10) Where a penalty removes a person's eligibility to hold, or be nominated for, office in any club, the President must give a signed notice of the ineligibility, the duration of the ineligibility, and the reasons for the ineligibility, to that person.
- (11) If, within 10 academic days of being given a penalty notice, other than for a reprimand, a club gives a written notice of appeal to the Executive, stating objection to the penalty—
- (a) the notice of appeal operates as a stay of that penalty, unless the Executive, in exceptional circumstances and after having received the written concurrence of the president of the MSA, resolves otherwise; and
 - (b) the appeal must, subject to subclause 57(1) and other notice requirements, be heard at the next scheduled OGM or EGM.
- (12) If, within 10 academic days of being given an ineligibility notice, a person gives a written notice of appeal to the Executive, stating objection to the ineligibility, the appeal must, subject to subclause 57(1), be heard at the next scheduled OGM or EGM.

57 Misconduct appeal hearings

- (1) The Executive must give at least 14 days written notice of a misconduct appeal hearing to the appellant and any representatives of the club which the Executive reasonably believes could face the penalty listed in paragraph (8)(g), stating the general meeting at which the appeal will be heard, provided that notice of the general meeting has been given as prescribed in clause 21.
- (2) Subject to subclauses (3)-(6), a misconduct appeal hearing must be conducted in the manner determined by C&S at the general meeting during which the appeal is heard.
- (3) At a misconduct appeal hearing, C&S acts as an appeal tribunal and—
 - (a) must permit evidence to be given orally and in writing; and
 - (b) must act according to fairness and good conscience and the substantial merits of the case, without regard to technicalities or legal forms; and
 - (c) must give the appellant a reasonable opportunity to be heard; and

- (d) must give the Executive a reasonable opportunity to be heard; and
 - (e) is not bound to conduct any proceeding in a formal manner; and
 - (f) must hear and determine the matter as quickly as is consistent with the requirements of fairness.
- (4) At a general meeting where a misconduct appeal is heard, a person—
- (a) elected by and from the attendants; and
 - (b) who is not an executive member; and
 - (c) who is not the appellant, if the appellant is a person; and
 - (d) who is not a member of the appellant, if the appellant is a club—
- may preside as chair for the duration of the misconduct appeal hearing.
- (5) At a misconduct appeal hearing—
- (a) each executive member; and
 - (b) the appellant, if the appellant is an attendant; and
 - (c) the appellant's representative, if the appellant is a club—
- must abstain from voting on any resolution, and have the abstention noted.
- (6) A misconduct appeal hearing must proceed as a hearing de novo.
- (7) The appellant must not be represented at a misconduct appeal hearing by a duly qualified legal practitioner or other agent acting for fee or reward, unless C&S, after having considered all the relevant circumstances, is satisfied that such representation is necessary in order to ensure fairness.
- (8) If, after hearing a misconduct appeal in accordance with this constitution, C&S resolves that an appellant club is guilty of misconduct, it may resolve to impose a penalty on the appellant, which may include any combination of—
- (a) reprimanding the appellant or 1 or more of its representatives; or
 - (b) directing the appellant to apologise for its behaviour, in a method determined by C&S; or
 - (c) directing 1 or more of the appellant's representatives to undertake training as determined by C&S; or
 - (d) directing the club to submit minutes of committee meetings for a specified period of time; or
 - (e) directing the club to repay the cost of any property damage that has occurred due to the misconduct; or
 - (f) restricting the club's eligibility to hold specified types of events for a specified period of time; or
 - (g) removing from 1 or more of the appellant's representatives the eligibility to hold, or be nominated for, office in any club, for a specified period of time, or indefinitely; or
 - (h) restricting or removing the appellant's access to services provided by C&S; or
 - (i) restricting or removing the appellant's eligibility to apply for, or receive, specified forms of financial or other assistance from C&S, for a specified period of time; or
 - (j) altering the appellant's affiliation status, for a specified period of time not exceeding 24 academic weeks, or in exceptional circumstances 48 academic weeks; or

- (k) disaffiliating the appellant.
- (9) If, after hearing a misconduct appeal in accordance with this constitution, C&S resolves that an appellant person is guilty of misconduct, it may resolve to remove the appellant's eligibility to hold, or be nominated for, office in any club, for a specified period of time, or indefinitely.
- (10) If, after conducting a misconduct appeal hearing in accordance with this constitution, C&S resolves that an appellant has not been guilty of misconduct, C&S must take such steps as it deems necessary to restore the successful appellant to a state which is, in the opinion of C&S, substantially the same as the state in which the appellant would have been, had the appellant not been found guilty of misconduct by the Executive.
